Nothing will stop Irvin Mokitimi's mission to change the Kasi boys from the dangerous lifestyle of playing with Nyaope. Despite the lack of support from public or private sectors, Mokitimi of Ext 8 is determined to hook substance abusers to join his baby Alex BMX Riders.

"My aim is to see Alexandra a drug-free and abuse-free community. I think through activities such as ours, the unemployed-youth can make a living out of this sport," explains the 29 year-old Mokitimi. But to embark on this kind of sport, which is evidently hardzaidous, one needs protective gear.

"The BMX and its gear are very expensive. It also becomes more challenging to convince more guys on the streets to join us since we currently don't have sponsors and a facility. But I'm courageous, that one day we will get sponsors and find a conducive area for our practice," adds the father of two.

When Greater Alex Today Newspaper visited the enthusiasts at Ext. 8, they had just prepared a piece of land to practice Back Flips, Tail Whip, Bar Spins and Rotations.

"We need a ramp to do these things. We can't even organize competitions if we don't have facilities. Because of the challenges; we end up riding on the streets, which can result in serious accidents,"

Alex BMX has members such as Johnk Sekgato (25), Bongani Nkosi (19) and Sbusiso Nkosi (24). They say that riding keeps them busy and drags them away from reckless lifestyle and would be happy to get help to formalize their activities.

a whole. Orlando Pirates made me what I'm today but Leopards gave me the break of a lifetime. I will always be grateful for that," he said. At Pirates I played alongside Chipka lekoelea, Gerald Raphahlela, Lucky Lekgwathi and others.

But without taking anything away from other teams I played, I enjoyed my football at Leopards. At the moment I'm planning to start a soccer academy and register as a soccer agent to help the disadvantaged youth.
